

Butterfly Pea

Centrosema virginianum

This plant is twirling or trailing vine with purple or lavender flowers singularly or in clusters of 2-4. Often found in dry, sandy areas, this plant is host for at least two butterfly species: the long-tailed skipper and the northern cloudywing. Pods mature and bust open, twisting around to release seeds.

- Perennial
- Grows 6-12 feet
- Found in pinewoods, coastal uplands

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----

Flowering Time