

Savannah coreopsis

Coreopsis linifolia

With cheerful yellow flowers, this plant produces flowers singularly or in few bunches on leafless stems. Flowering in late summer this species does best in moist soils. A very slender plant with thick leaves it grows well among native grasses. Butterflies and bees are attracted to this species. Birds will eat the seeds as well.

- Perennial
- Grows 1-3 feet
- Found moist ditches, wet flatwoods

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----

Flowering Time