

Summer Farewell

Dalea pinnata

A perennial in the pea family this plant signals the end of summer. A clump former it produces white to lavender flowers in late summer – fall. A good plant for the middle of a perennial border. Well suited for dry sandy soils. Naturally this species is found in dry pine woodlands and sandhills.

- Perennial
- Grows 1-3 ft
- Found in open, sandy soils,

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----

Flowering Time