

Blazing Star

Liatris elegans

Leaves on this plant resemble pine needles and are gathered on the stem in whorls. Flowers are purple to pink and appear on a tall spike 6-20 inches long, opening from the top down. These are especially attractive to bees and butterflies.

- Perennial
- Grows 4 feet
- Found in prairies, pinelands, sandy areas

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----

Flowering Time