

Grassleaf Blazing Star

Liatris graminifolia

A tall perennial, this plant has slender, grass-like leaves adorning reddish pink stems. Flowers are purple to white and appear in bundles up along an elongated wand like spike. Fruits provide food for birds. A fall bloomer, this is a good candidate for the fall garden.

- Perennial
- Grows 3 feet
- Found in open forests, uplands, disturbed areas

|     |     |     |     |     |      |      |     |      |     |     |     |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|------|------|-----|------|-----|-----|-----|
| Jan | Feb | Mar | Apr | May | June | July | Aug | Sept | Oct | Nov | Dec |
|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|------|------|-----|------|-----|-----|-----|

Flowering Time