

Barbara's Button

Marshallia tenuifolia

Leaves are low-growing and neat in basal rosette. Flowers are fragrant, and as a member of the aster family, are surrounded by a ring of disk flowers. This plant is capable of growing in sand, loam, or thick organics.

- Perennial
- Grows 12-18 in.
- Found in flatwoods, prairies, bogs

Jan	Feb	Mar	Apr	May	June	July	Aug	Sept	Oct	Nov	Dec
-----	-----	-----	-----	-----	------	------	-----	------	-----	-----	-----

Flowering Time